Brief Synopsis

Current Situation as of 1630 hrs

There are less than 50 people on Parliament Hill and a further 2,000 people on the streets in and around Wellington, Elgin, Rideau and Sussex. There has been no change in our geographical boundaries. Speeches have been occurring on the stage at Wellington and Metcalfe.

There is a continued unified police presence of OPS, RCMP and OPP officers managing the static, QRT and mobile response within the core.

There are still two active counter-protest actions taking place. The one around 474 Elgin has approximately 30 protestors who have been blocking intersections around the station at random. As a result, the Metcalfe exits (both east and west) are closed by the OPP for public safety reasons. The second counter protest at Riverside and Bank continues with 2-300 people remaining. They have blocked in the convoy that departed Coventry shortly after 0900 hrs this morning. OPS has maintained a strong presence to manage public safety. There are minimal impacts to traffic.

This afternoon, a small group of protestors marched from Zibi near Portage Bridge to Parliament Hill without incident.
